Period of Performance	September 20, 2012, through March 31, 2015

This Task Order Progress Report is for the Remedial Investigation/Feasibility Study (RI/FS) at the United Zinc Number 1 Site in Iola, Kansas. This Report summarizes work performed during the reporting period as well as financial information relative to Contractor compliance with the negotiated schedule and budget detailed in the Task Order Proposal submitted to EPA Region 7 by HydroGeoLogic, Inc. (HGL) on August 22, 2012, in response to the Task Order Statement of Work (SOW) issued by the EPA Contracting Officer. The Task Order Project Officer (TOPO) for this task order is Don Bahnke. Activity on this Task Order is summarized in Sections 1 through 5 and augmented by summary Reports A through G attached. This report discusses the activities conducted under this task order for the reporting period that coincides with the calendar month. The HGL accounting period for this time frame is September 28 through November 1, 2013. Therefore, costs associated with some activities accomplished during the calendar month, but outside the accounting period, may appear in next month's invoice. Some activities for the period of performance are retained in the monthly report to provide background information; new information for the reporting period is provided in italic type to distinguish it from historical information.

Subtask 1.7 Sampling and Analysis Plan

No charges will be incurred under this subtask. The SAP consists of the Field Sampling Plan (FSP) and Quality Assurance Project Plan (QAPP); costs are allocated under these subtasks.

Subtask 1.8 Field Sampling Plan

The FSP was submitted to EPA on November 13, 2012, as a component of the SAP. In late March, HGL addressed the EPA TOPO's and Regional Quality Assurance Manager's comments. The property sampling component of the FSP was approved May 3 so field efforts could commence while HGL was awaiting comments from the EPA risk assessor to update and finalize the FSP. Comments from EPA's risk assessment contractor were provided to HGL via email from the EPA TOPO Don Bahnke on July 9. The FSP was revised to include the fish tissue samples, and accommodate the number of surface water, sediment and stream bank samples that were altered by the EPA risk assessor. The revised FSP was submitted as a component of the SAP on July 31, 2013. HGL received additional comments from the EPA TOPO on September 12. Those comments were addressed in the FSP. A revised version of the Final plan was submitted to EPA on September 27, 2013.

Subtask 3.4 Environmental Sampling, Including Collection, Preparation, and Shipping

Costs for this subtask are detailed under Subtasks 3.4.1 through 3.4.7.

Subtask 3.4.1 Property Access

Residential property access efforts were minimal this reporting period and consisted of:

- Responding to telephone calls.
- Mailing property owners that had not responded to previous contact attempts.
- Leaving notes at properties informing the owner we were attempting to contact them.
- Meeting with residents.

HGL obtained 3 access agreements from residents for surface soil sampling for a grand total of 1,008.

HGL also obtained access to sample 5 private wells, 3 former smelter properties and 21 surface water and sediment locations.

Subtask 3.4.2 Residential Surface Soil Sampling (1,715 Properties)

Soil sampling is nearly complete, so efforts under this subtask were focused on completing sampling at remaining residential sites. The field crew generally consisted of two members. Their efforts included: collecting, preparing, and analyzing samples and documenting property conditions and XRF sample analysis results on a field sketch.

^{*} Number of properties with non-drip zone areas that contained lead at a concentration greater than 400 parts per million (ppm).

Other efforts completed under this subtask included an initial review of digitized property maps. Approximately, 700 of the 1,008 maps were initially reviewed during the October reporting period. The remaining initial reviews will be completed by mid-November. The review consists of comparing the features on the digitized map to the actual property and insuring the appropriate sample areas are highlighted as exceeding 400 ppm. A final review will be completed by the HGL PM once the initial reviews are complete.

To keep the TOPO apprised of ongoing work, a weekly status report is prepared and submitted every Friday via email.

The fish tissue sampling requested by EPA's risk assessor also was scoped under this subtask. This fieldwork was conducted the week of October 15 by HGL's electro-fishing subcontractor The Watershed Institute. Over 1,000 fish were obtained: 9 whole body and 15 fillet samples were selected as samples. The analytical results will be submitted to EPA's risk assessment contractor for use in their risk analysis.

Subtask 3.4.3 Well Sampling

HGL continued searching for private wells by contacting the city administrator and his assistant. They indicated there were no known private wells within the city limits and that the city water supply lines extended approximately five miles beyond the city limits. HGL retained the services of a local community member with knowledge of local conditions to locate private wells within or near the city limits. Access was obtained to sample five private wells.

Subtask 3.4.4 Sediment and Surface Water Sampling

Labor hours were expended to prepare for the upcoming sampling effort and to coordinate access from farmers along the Neosho River for the sampling effort.

4. CONTRACTOR INITIATED INNOVATIONS AND COST SAVINGS

The State of Kansas considers the Neosho River to be private property; thus, HGL had to obtain permission from approximately 25 land owners to float down the river on their property and to collect samples from 10 locations along the river. It was anticipated that most of the farmers would not cooperate due to our previous interactions while attempting gain access to their properties in Iola. HGL researched options to this potential issue and identified a local community member, formerly employed at the Iola office of the U.S. Department of Agriculture

(USDA), who had worked with local farmers to process insurance claims. HGL paid this individual a unit cost per property where access was obtained; where private wells were identified and access obtained; and to correct inaccurate county appraiser owner information. Through this local contact, HGL obtained access to 25 properties, permission to sample 5 wells, and 5 property ownership records were corrected for a total of $875. HGL estimates that these efforts would have required at least 20 hours for a mid-level staff member and junior level staff member, and resulted in a total cost of $3,954.60. The cost savings to EPA was $3,079.60.

5. ACTIVITIES PLANNED FOR NEXT REPORTING PERIOD

The activities planned for the next period include the following:

- Weekly cost tracking, filing, and routine communications with the EPA TOPO.
- Prepare the monthly status report and invoice for the previous reporting period.
- Complete the initial review and begin the final review of the property map deliverables.
- Collect the risk assessment samples. The risk assessment samples include: smelter property samples, sensitive habitat samples, species of concern samples, and surface water and sediment samples. This effort is scheduled for November 4.
- Prepare site map illustrating the highest lead result for each property for Dr. Drexler to use to select speciation samples.
